will be conducted from the 16th to the 18th inst., inclusive, and the formal opening will be celebrated on the evening of the 14th to 17th inst., inclusive. It was announced yesterday by J. W.
the club organizer.

The program arranged in celebration of the opening included musical numbers by the following:
Frank Geiger, pianist; the Symphony Singers; the Temperamental Orchestra; the Welsh Serenaders; Miss Neel, prano, and Helen Gillett, Neil, accompanist.

The concourse structure, said to be the finest beach plant in America, is but the first unit of the new building. This $1,000,000 building which will care for the members during the current beach season will be followed by the main building, construction of which is scheduled to start October 15.

The concourse staff of the club house will be organized for the summer, and will function perfectly. Morgan S. Tyler, the club manager, announced from the time of opening that ample parking provision will be provided for the members on club property.

Church Faction Summons
Council After Minister
Refuses to Resign

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, June 3.—A score of blows were exchanged and blood was drawn today in a fist fight between Rev. J. Brooks Frost, pastor of the local Baptist Church, and Rev. Gideon Higginbottom, sientific Baptist evangelist, in front of the former's house of worship in the climes, to a day of bitter strife between opposing factions under Mr. Frost's parishioners.

Witnesses in the host of fistfights between the two groups of churchmen headed by Charles C. Dale, who had taken possession of the church after forcing the lock on the front door, and had held the fort despite Mr.
Frost's efforts to Sheriff Ballard and the District Attorney's office to send them.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, June 3.—A resolution directing the Federal Trade Commission to investigate the increased price of gasoline and other petroleum products was adopted today by the Senate without a record vote.

The resolution, introduced by Senator Trammell, Democrat,
Florida, requires the commission to report to the Senate at the next session of Congress whether the increases were "arbitrarily made and unwarranted."

The commission is further directed to determine if there are any agreements between oil companies to raise or depress prices or if competition is restricted by conditions of ownership of oil producing, refineries or marketing facilities.

Senator Trammell held the resolution before the Senate for weeks and each time there was a full investigation, but it was shoved aside repeatedly for some other measure.
He accused the Senate of wasting time over trivial affairs while the public was paying a heavy toll to the oil trusts.

(ATTACKS COMMISSION)
Joining in the debate, Senator
Kingsley, Democrat, U. S. House, resolution as a medium to again attack the Federal Trade Commission, declaring that as important as the resolution was, he did not believe that the commission or the Senate with its present majority personnel would be fruitful.

Rising to the defense of the oil industry, Senator Harrell, Republican, a large man, turned to Mr. Frost and fought down the short words of the churchman, declining blow for blow, until one of the front adherents mixed in the crowd struck Mr. Higginbottom in the face.

According to Mr. Frost, Mr. Higginbottom made an offensive remark in the debate, Senator
Kingsley agreed, saying my remark or starting the trouble.

Mr. Frost, son of the minister, intended to defend his mother, Mr.
Higginbottom, taking offense at the other statements, struck at him,

NORGE AIDED BY FOREIGN LANDS IN FLIGHT TO POLE

Offer of Hangars Gave Sense of More Security to Amundsen; Weather Greatest Hazard

Following is a continuation of Capt. Roald Amundsen's story of the flight of the dirigible Norge across the North Pole from Spitsbergen to Alaska. Another full page of pictures of various phases of the expedition appears on Page 12, Part II of this edition of The Times.

NOME (Alaska) June 3.—When it was decided that the airship should fly from Rome to Kinga Bay, the most important thing was to find the best route. As mentioned in the first part of this narrative, the original plan was to fly from Rome over France to Pulham and from there with only one landing in Condjem to Kinga Bay.

But when our pilot, Col. Noble, studied the weather conditions over the northern part of the Atlantic Ocean during the months of April and May, he got some doubts about this route. The flight over the ocean would, according to his opinion, be very risky because weather in those areas changes frequently and is characterized by heavy winds.

So other routes had to be examined. After some difficulty a route over routes with more certain weather in the two months was found.

During the conferences in Oslo it was decided that the possible airship should fly over Russia. The expedition addressed an inquiry to the Russian authorities asking them if there existed in the western part of Russia any hangars where the ship could land on its flight to Spitsbergen.

FRIENDLY SERVICE

Fortunately, the answer was favorable. Near the little town of Gatchina, famous for its old and beautiful imperial summer residence, there exists with Leningrad a big shed existed. After it had been examined by Capt. Noble and Lieut. Rillef-Larsen it was definitely decided that the Norge could land there.

With a friendliness that shall remember forever the Russian government decided that they would, without cost to the expedition, put the needed sheds up little damaged, not having been used for several years.

The distance from Leningrad to Kinga Bay is 1,000 miles, however, and not without meteorological perils that it was not deemed advisable to cover it in one flight.

One of the Perils of Polar Air Navigation

Previous experiences in the Arctic stood Capt. Amundsen in good stead during the flight of the Norge from Kinga Bay to Alaska, and also during the last lap of the voyage from Leningrad to Spitsbergen, base of the expedition. In the accompanying article he describes the hazard of winds in piloting a dirigible over the frozen wastes. This picture of a polar glacier about 600 miles from the North Pole, was taken at 1 o'clock in the morning by an assistant of Amundsen who flew over the region in 1922 during the same flight. The photo was taken at a height of 3,500 feet. The photo was taken at the extreme left-hand corner a piece of glacier, while the formation between this and the mountains shows the sediment. It shows how easily an airship might be wrecked by being blown off its course by adverse winds.

CARROLL GIVEN YEAR TERM

Producer Also Fined $2000 in Bathtub Perjury; Out on Bail Pending Appeal

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE

NEW YORK, June 3.—Earl Carroll, Broadway producer, convicted of perjury in connection with grand jury investigation of a party in his theater at which an unclad chorus girl served drinks from a bathtub in which she was seated, was sentenced today to serve a year and a day in Attica Federal prison on each of two counts, the sentences to run concurrently, and to pay a fine of $1000 on each count.

The court ordered the jail sentence on the two counts to run concurrently so that Carroll will have to serve a year and a day and pay a fine of $2000. Sentence was imposed by Judge Goddard before whom Carroll was tried and convicted.

Carroll originally was indicted on six counts. Two referred to his testimony that there had been no liquor served at the party, two to his statement that one occurred in the bathtub, and two to his assertion that he had no list of guests at the party.

The guest list indictment was dropped on the recommendation of the prosecution, but guilty of the liquor indictment but guilty of the two indictments concerning the nude woman in the bathtub.

During the trial Joyce Hawley, 17-year-old chorus girl, testified that she had occupied a bathtub on the stage of the Earl Carroll Theater at Carroll's invitation and that she was given with beer and fruit juice from the bathtub and two to his assertion that he had no list of guests at the party.

SENATE PASSES
NAVAL AIR BILL

Provides $85,000,000 Program to Cover Five Years

Plan Calls for 1947 Planes and Two Rigid Ships

Measure Creates Office of Secretary for Aviation

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE) WASHINGTON, June 3.—Sixteen minutes after it was taken up today the House bill which would authorize a five-year building program for the Naval Air Service, was passed without debate and without record vote. The entire sixteen minutes were taken up by a clerk in reading the bill section by section.

Provision is made for the construction of 180 planes, to include as two rigid airships each three times the size of the wrecked Shenandoah, and the maintenance of a minimum strength of 1000 useful heavier-than-air craft.

CREATES NEW OFFICE

The bill also would create the office of Second Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Aviation and provide that any officer of the Marine Corps or Navy detailed to command an aviation school, air station or air unit organized for flight training, shall be a qualified naval aviator.

The airships, of a type suitable for use as adjuncts to the fleet, would be of approximately 6,000,000 cubic feet volume, each and $30,000,000 would be the construction cost for both.

By year, the following heavier-than-air craft construction would be authorized: 1927, 155 planes, $11,288,000; 1928, 112 planes, $16,232,750; 1929, 338 planes, $17,552,500; 1930, 357 planes, $19,941,250; and 1931, 374 planes, $20,946,250. Provision also is made for the building of 223 other planes.

BOARD APPROVED

A bill by Representative Vincent, Democrat of Minnesota, to establish an aircraft procurement board within the government departments was approved by the House Military Committee after Secretary Davis had testified in support of it.

The board would consist of Assistant Secretaries of the War, Navy, Commerce and Postonic Departments, and the chiefs of the Army, Air Service and Naval Bureau of Aeronautics. It would coordinate plans for the development of aviation.

Los Angeles County Ranks Second in Elementary Schools Per Pupil Average

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—California's investment in public-school property, including buildings and equipment, totals $285,439,516, an average of $245.39 per pupil in average daily attendance, according to figures contained in a report made public today by Walter E. Morris, Superintendent State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The valuation is given as follows: High schools, $113,842,061; elementary schools, $172,626,916; kindergartens, $65,255.

Calif. City students has the greatest investment per pupil in the elementary schools, with $425.61 per pupil, as compared with a State average of $209.45, and Del Norte has the lowest average valuation at $72.26 per pupil. Los Angeles has an average of $395.74, and San Francisco fifth with $343.04.

In the high school classification the state is intermediate in the county where it is necessary to spend $181.42 to provide equipment for each student, as compared with the State average of $728.64, while Calaveras County's average is $100.40 per pupil. The State average is $220.50.

The records show that two Calif. counties have no high schools. These are Alpine and Mono.

Embassy Club's
Reported Money
Crisis Settled

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, June 3.—Reports that financial disaster has overtaken the exclusive Embassy Club in Fifth Avenue were discounted today by attorneys for Mrs. Harry T. Wilson, Jr., sponsor of the enterprise, announced that checks had been mailed for $30,000 rent and other obligations. The entire affair, coming to light when a notice was posted that the furniture that the furnishings would be sold to satisfy creditors, was due to a misunderstanding over the weekend, Mrs. Wilson's attorneys said.

The club has been closed in opposition to the counsel of older leaders. A new location must be found for it as the building is being demolished, but the announcement stated that the club has had no other difficulties.

SAWTELLE LAND
PRICE BOOSTED

*County May Pay Half-Million
More Due to Swing*

Committee Reports Bill for University Deal

Value of $1,500,000 Set as Tract's Value

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) WASHINGTON, June 3.—The county of Los Angeles probably will be given an opportunity to buy 160 acres of the Sawtelle Soldier's Home grounds for the University of California. Southern Branch, but, owing to the intervention of Representative Swing, the county will have to pay $1,500,000 for the tract instead of an even $1,000,000.

The House Committee on Militia Affairs, today favorably reported the Shortridge bill, previously passed by the Senate, authorizing this sale, but in reporting the bill increased the purchase price $50,000, and also adopted a amendment requiring the United States any mineral or oil in the tract.

Until today's meeting of the committee there had been no suggestion that the sum paid for the Shortridge bill was too low. But when the subcommittee reported this morning it recommended that the price to be paid by the county should be $1,500,000, and this recommendation was followed by the full committee.

SWING LETTERS REVEALED

The increase in the price of this 160-acre tract, it was decided as the result of a series of letters which Representative Swing has written to each of the members of the Military Affairs Committee. In these letters, which were sent to the committee, the price paid by the Shortridge bill was ridiculous low and far below the true value of the land. The sale at $1,000,000, he said, would be a fraud upon the taxpayers as the tract is worth $10,000 to $15,000 an acre.

Following up Swing's letter and a suggestion on the side, the Military Affairs Committee sent a telegram to the Shortridge bill, the committee this morning debated whether to amend the bill and report it, or let it stand for the session. It was agreed that any legislation to which there is material opposition stands little chance of enactment this late in the session.

FREE AND BARLOW TOLD

Before taking action on the committee sent for Representative Free, who is championing the university bill in the House, and for Walter E. Barlow, who is representing the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and explained to them the situation in the committee, informing them that a majority of the committee did not want to report the bill unless the price was increased to $1,500,000. It was made plain to them that compromise was necessary in order to get the bill out of committee and to make it plain that unless the price was increased the bill would be voted down.

Mr. Free and Mr. Barlow tested that $1,500,000 is an excessive amount to pay for the land and it is worth; that it is not fair to compare this land with some tracts which Mr. Swing had cited as having been sold to moving-picture companies for $15,000 each with the city lots immediately adjoining the university grounds, lots in thoroughly developed subdivisions, with streets, water, sewers and other improvements.

Not understanding this protest, the committee, recognizing the urgent need for enlarging the university grounds, ordered favorable report on the bill, amended as indicated.

Representative Free this afternoon conferred with Speaker Longworth and has been assured by him that on Monday next, the chairman of the Military Committee will be summoned to meet and support the bill.

Understandably this protest, the committee, recognizing the urgent need for enlarging the university grounds, ordered favorable report on the bill, amended as indicated.

Interim Ministry Formed
by Pilsudski Expected to Hand in Resignations

(BY CARL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS) WARSAW, June 3.—A noon-to-night Polish new President, Ignacy Moscicki, will be formally inaugurated. Immediately after the ceremony the interim Cabinet set up after Marshal Pilsudski's coup, will resign, but it is expected the Ministry will be asked to continue, with possible changes in one or two portfolios.

Prof. Jarowski of Cracow University, law and economics department, is repeatedly mentioned as likely to form a new Cabinet, replacing Premier Bartol, who would remain as Minister of Finance. It is considered probable that M. Bartol will be inclined to assume the responsibility of the Premiership on account of poor health.

The name of former Premier Count Szymanowski, who is cropping up again for the Premiership, with Count Tarnowski, former Austrian diplomat, for the post of Foreign Minister.

Marshal Pilsudski apparently intends to make his way, at tomorrow's inaugural ceremony. He desired that the ceremony should take place in the reception hall of the historic Castle of the Polish Kings, instead of the Parliament.

The castle's reception hall was found to be too small, however, to hold the vast assembly, and the Parliament Building was again talked of. But Pilsudski ordered that the entire castle be decorated for the occasion, open to the public, and these with the reception hall, are being decorated with garlands and flags.

State Line*

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—Arrival of an automobile caravan from San Francisco and Sacramento Valley will mark the occasion for celebrating at the California-Nevada State line the 10th inst., the completion of the Truckee River highway, California's most important north-south highway in connection with the mountains and the East and the second of four great projects to be finished by the State Highway Commission this year.

Commissioners announced the completion of the highway through the canyon of the Truckee, including five bridges costing approximately $100,000. Final construction is to be completed in the canyon.

The three other major projects of the commission's 1924 program are the Klamath River bridge on the coast road, highway, virtual completion of which recently was celebrated; the water-level Merced Canyon route into Yosemite, scheduled to open July 31, and the section of the highway through the Sierra Nevada, Inyo county, which is expected to be completed some time this fall.

Favorites Retain Positions for Junior Net Title

DOEG EXTENDED BY TROJAN ACE

Francis Hardy Wins First Set, But Loses

Gorchakov and Kussman Are Still in Lead

Peggy James to Meet Miss Crookshank

With the completion of the preliminary round matches of the annual Southern California junior tennis championships, seeded entrants in the tournament advanced to the second and third round brackets with little opposition. John Doe, leading favorite seven in the nationals, Art Kussman, former State prep doubles champion, and Ben Gorchakov, All-California intercollegiate titleholder, capped easy victories yesterday in the second round at Alhambra.

Johnny Doe, whose sensational Eastern invasion last season stamped him as one of the nation's leading juniors, met some unexpected opposition in Francis Hardy, favorite four in the tournament. Of Southern California, the latter capping the opening set at 7-5, but dropping the latter two sets and the match at 6-3, 6-4. Hardy ran his opponent from the baseline to drop a Doeg out of the court at regular intervals only to net the ball and drop the point in the most crucial stages of the contest. Later in the afternoon Doe again met Kussman, who was playing close to dropping a contest to Willis, of San Pedro High School, the latter star running Doe to extra games, 7-5, 8-6.

Junior Parker, the sensational Southie backscratcher, and Art Kussman, Ben Gorchakov, college titleholders, were, after dropping the initial set at 6-1, Parker led his rival opponent in every game until 5-1, where Gorchakov, who had been forced to give up his favorite line drives to take his service for the first time in this set, thus capping the second set and the match at 7-5. Art Kussman, former State prep titleholder, who had a record score of 6-6, 6-6 against Carnegie in another feature contest, Kussman is seeded number three in the junior draw.

In the junior girl's division, Miss Peggy James, city queen, and Miss Josephine Crookshank, northern city star, advanced to the second round bracket, where they will meet in the final round tomorrow at 2:00 o'clock. Miss James is a favorite to down her northern city rival, for the local ace is playing at the height of her short tennis career. Miss Midge Gladman, San Pedro tennis star, eliminated Miss Choena, the latter running her all-star opponent to extra games, 8-6, 6-1, before accepting defeat.

The tournament will continue today starting at 2:00 o'clock with full day play tomorrow and Sunday. Finals in the junior doubles will be completed tomorrow at 2:00 o'clock while finals in the junior stars with divisional winners will be carded for Sunday afternoon. Schedule for today and the results for yesterday follow:

AMERICAN PROS MEET BRITONS

International Golf Match Opens Today

Each Team to Use Ten Men Instead of Eight

Two More Yankees to Take Part in Play

BY CARL AND E. CLAYTON PARKER

LONDON, June 3.—The international professional golf match between the United States and Great Britain, which opens at Wentworth tomorrow, will be played by teams consisting of ten men each instead of eight.

At the request of Walter Hagen, the American captain, it was decided today to alter the plans for the tournament in order that two more Americans may engage in the play.

The singles line-up for Saturday, as far as I can tell in plans, is as follows:

Jim Barnes vs. Abe Mitchell; Walter Hagen vs. George Duncan; T. D. Armour vs. Aubrey Bonner; Jim Kirkwood vs. Archie Constance; W. Melbros vs. Ted Ray; Cyril Walker vs. Fred Robson; Freddie McLeod vs. Arthur Havers; Emmet French vs. E. R. Whitcombe; Joseph Scott vs. H. C. Jolly.

Originally it had been planned to have McLeod, French and Steere play a three-ball match for the last place on the American team to oppose Havers, but this was unnecessary when it was agreed to play the full nine.

The third day will be two-ball foursomes, which will be played tomorrow, have been rearranged as follows: Barnes-Hagen vs. Mitchell-Duncan; Kirkwood vs. Ladd; Constance-Melbros; Walker-Melbros vs. Gadd-Havers; Walker-Melbros vs. Arthur; French vs. Whitcombe-Jolly; French vs. E. R. Whitcombe; Joseph Scott vs. H. C. Jolly.

An enthusiastic Trojan rooter showed no signs of alarm when the other day where it appeared that the admission of Badminton to the tournament would make no difference whatsoever in the Trojans' chances of winning the U.S.A.A. for the third consecutive year. Such a notion is no particular use in trying to convince the boys otherwise, but there is a lot of difference in the way the two sides could possibly be scored by a stock of energetic sophomores and the sure-fire first places earned by heady old-timers like Dye and Grunbaum.

Charley Paddock's determination to refrain from competing in the nationals at Philadelphia this year will probably be tested on a yell this morning. If Charley Borash should go to Philadelphia and get trimmed what an awful scream those Americans will let out at the thought of the new record, the new 9.8, record for the century. At that, Charley seems to be able to beat anybody they throw at him so he ought to trim him to a shadow before taking over what they may think.

WILSHIRE INVITATIONAL NEXT WEEK

Record Field Expected to Qualify Monday and Tuesday

Nearly four hundred of the best golfers in this vicinity will start qualifying eighteen holes, next Monday. The Wilshire course is in marvelous shape and will be a great surprise to players who have not seen it before.

Contestants will qualify in three classes, scratch to eight, nine to thirteen, first six flights and ten to eighteen players for the last four flights. Those will be defeated eight flights, all nonqualifiers and players dropped in first-round matches will be eligible to play in a second-round flight. Nonqualifiers will be eligible to play in a third-round flight. Nonqualifiers will be eligible to play in a fourth-round flight.

Murray Schulz should prove the most interesting competitor of the three at Chicago for several reasons. He is the best amateur competitor and a fine competitor; then he will meet Roland Locke, the record wrecker of Nebraska, and will be the first real competitor that Schulz will meet this year.

If you do not consider the times that Schulz has made with those of Locke, there is only one decision you can reach, and that is a unanimous verdict for the latter. The record time is 9.8s. in the 100 yards, which is 2-10 of a second faster than Schulz has done, or at least three yards. In the 220 Schulz has registered a 21-10 and Locke a 20-10, a difference of 8-10 of a second, or approximately eight yards.

If the timing has been absolutely correct in the case of both men, there can be no doubt in my mind that Schulz will be the best.

If the timing has been absolutely fast first fifty yards. Now Schulz has learned these last few weeks to do just what Schulz will do in the 220 yards, which mark he will be ahead of him at eighty yards. Then it is a question of who has the best finish.

Neither athlete is credited with having a superamount of power in the final burst for the tape. But Nash says that he actually gains on the inside of the Kansan relay in the last ten yards, and Hugh Pinney has been able to finish faster than Schulz. I don't see that Schulz will be but a few feet behind him at eighty yards.

In the furlong I would be surprised to see Schulz finish first. If the Caltech boy draws a lane in front of Locke and plays his cards right he will beat the Cornishman.

If it is not giving away secrets of running too much, I might add that the man on the inside has distinct advantage over the man in front of him, provided that he watches him.

The man ahead cannot see what the fellow behind him is doing. He cannot take practice runs around and he could not tell anything in such a short glance, anyway. So the runner in front must judge his own place and hold to it. Ninety-nine times out of a hundred, unless he is in a race of mere seconds of competition, which Locke is not, he will set too hot a pace.

The man behind only has to get a good start, break into his stride and run along until he gets around the curve, and part way down the straightaway, keeping within striking distance, but saving his energy in order to win. For in the last burst of the racing, the man who has been racing with the man who has been cut off in front killing himself off. Now that is outside position on his opponent.

The chance of that happening are, of course, fifty-fifty.

If Schulz finishes within a yard of Locke in the 100 and within two yards of him in the 220 he will not only have covered almost the entire distance, but he will also have caused the questioning eyebrows of the venerable A.A.U. to be raised in regard to the timekeepers of the Middle West.

WOMEN HEAR PRISON CHARGE

Mrs. Willebrandt Cancels Federation Address

Propaganda Hints Reported Back of Nonappearance

Continued Feminine Support of Federal Bills Urged

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

ATLANTIC CITY, June 3.—Intimations that Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt, United States Assistant Attorney-General, was trying to use the General Federation of Women's Clubs to further plans of the Department of Justice today led her to cancel her engagement to speak to the federation convention on the subject of Federal industrial prisons for women. Miss Julia K. Jaffray of New York City thus explained Mrs. Willebrandt's absence.

Miss Jaffray, chairman of problems of delinquency and member of the board of advisers of the projected Federal prison at Alderson, West Virginia, urged the women, in spite of the criticism emanating from recent Congressional hearings to continue their support.

URGER SUPPORT

"I wish to take this opportunity with your approval, which I know I have, to say publicly that should there be a hearing in the Senate on these appropriations, the General Federation of Women's Clubs will expect to be present, and continue its policy of supporting this movement," said Miss Jaffray.

The need for an added Congressional appropriation of $1,000,000 to care for 300 Federal women prisoners in excess of the 300 cared for in an initial $8,000,000 appropriation brought about the present additional legislation according to Miss Jaffray. The prison is now under construction. It is to be a model institution, as to the cottage houses of the prisoners, to their industrial training, to the "girls' use" of their products. The additional appropriation was approved by Gen. Lord, director of the budget.

PROPAGANDA CHARGE MADE

"At hearings before the appropriations committee of Congress it was intimated that Mrs. Willebrandt, whose official duty is to guide the development of the institution and aid in the establishment of its policies, was attempting to influence Congress by using the General Federation of Women's Clubs for propaganda," said Miss Jaffray.

"She has refrained from coming to this convention, even at our earnest request to talk upon this topic, in the interest that no move be made that she is using the forums of this great organization to carry out the plans of the Department of Justice."

Mrs. Willebrandt's telegram of explanation read to the convention stated:

"Regret inability to speak on women's prison appropriation bill, having reported to Congress and anything might be said concerning plans for institution would therefore be premature. Thought appropriation matter would be settled before speech or would not have promised."

PLAY STATE CO-OPERATE

Miss Jaffray's report told of the federation's fight against exploitation of women in the various states. The State of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts in addition to Federal prisons now exhibit goods produced by their prison industries and sent them to State institutions and departments and the money is turned over to prisoners' families.

"The work before our division in the last two years has also to work hard in the State for a system of classifying and examining prisoners so that habitual criminals will be held indefinitely," she said.

A resolution endorsing the principle of the bill now before Congress to subject prison-made goods to the laws of the State into which they come, and a step toward abolition of the death sentence system was passed unanimously by the federation this morning.

BIENNIAL ELECTION DAY WITHOUT INTEREST

BY GRACE FRYE
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

ATLANTIC CITY, June 1.—Election day at the biennial of the General Federation of Women's Clubs is about as exciting as last year's news, the only possible exception being in the number of offices cast because of no contest in offices. Such exaggerated reports have been made as to the number of voting delegates registered that it may be of interest to know that the first official count at the close of registration was 190,000.

Order seems to be the convention's first law this biennial year of 1926. It is noticeable that the event has not changed the facial expression of the members, who consistently smile as they file to the polls in the gold room of the Chalfonte Hotel. There each one is given the department of Indian welfare, of which Mrs. H. A. Atwood of Riverside is chairman, is to be present tomorrow. In her speech this work will be presented by Mrs. Eugene B. Lawson, who will be remembered as the real Indian princess on the last biennial program.

CALIFORNIA ON ALERT

One could play Tennyson's brook and go on forever telling items of personal interest connected with real live delegates, who have kept well and happy when such old timers as Mrs. Philip North, Bocaer were downed by the surgeon.

There is Mrs. Harry H. Schultz who has zigzagged in an auto trip all over the United States, directing friend husband so he landed her here in time for the convention.

WOMEN VOICE PROTEST

Refusal of Suffrage Alliance to Admit National Party Scored by Viscountess

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

PARIS, June 2.—Viscountess Rhondda, president of the English Six Points Suffrage party, has paid her respects to the International Woman Suffrage Alliance for having refused membership to the National Women's party of which Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont of New York is honorary president. The Viscountess on Monday withdrew the application of her organization for membership in the alliance as a protest against the rejection of the National Women's party.

"The real reason that the alliance objects to you," said the Viscountess at a luncheon of the National Women's party yesterday in honor of Mrs. Belmont, "is because you are feminists and the bare sight of you makes the socialists and other leftists nervous; they go swiftly toward objectives for which their own hearts are not yet prepared. The alliance recognizes in you pure feminists and more than that. They did not admit pure feminists to the Six Points group and were ready to admit it to membership."

The Marquess Del Tor of Spain declared the failure to admit the National Women's party was fortunate in moral analysis because the party "will go ahead to success."

STERLING CLUB HUSBAND GUAGED

Federation Chiefs at Atlantic City Meeting Say He Must Have Wisdom, Patience, Skill and Will Power, But Shouldn't Be Henpecked

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

ATLANTIC CITY, June 3.—The wisdom of Solomon, the patience of Job, the skill of David's body servant and the iron will of Jonah, who would not give in to the whale, go to make up the "ideal club husband," privately described by members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The ideal club husband must, of course, interest all women's clubs in him, must go to conventions with her, and help her and the other women in all the ways a man can as my husband does," Mrs. Margaret Sloane Philadelphia, told the Associated Press. Mrs. Sloane pledged $10 from the floor "for the club husbands and for my twenty-ninth anniversary with mine."

"My husband is the ideal club husband because he lets me do just as I please," said Dr. Anna Flanner of Boston, who followed Mrs. Leach in pledging $10 for her husband, and her thirty-first anniversary.

POLICE CLEAR SHOOTING CASE

'Arrest Three for Huntington Park Hold-up'

'Officers Work from Slender Crew'

'Prisoners Said to Have Made Confessions'

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE
HUNTINGTON PARK, June 3.—Capture of three men at an early hour this morning, after a two-day search, solves the mystery of the shooting and hold-up taking place here Monday midnight, when the Pennant Cafe on North Pacifico was entered, and Harry L. Pitzer, the cook, was shot in the shoulder, after which the cash register was taken, the total amount of between $100 and $150, the trio making their escape in the midst of a gun battle between the men and Officers Harry Leland.

As a result, Carlos Martinez and Eddie Sanzana, giving their places of residence as Los Angeles, and Louis Higuera, of Downey Road are in the City jail. Two charges are to be placed against each man, it was stated, one being that they were robbers and the other that of assault with a deadly weapon. The complaints will be sworn to by Pitzer, the man who was shot, and arrangements made by Judge Edward Miller will probably be tomorrow when the session of the court is opened.

The capture of the trio was one of the most successful ever completed by the local police, and it is believed that the men were compelled to abandon their automobile Monday night during the gun battle in which Officer Leland was giving chase to the fleeing criminals.

When they were successful in getting away, Leland examined the contents of the machine and found several addresses in the car. These were turned over to the local department and today they succeeded in locating Mrs. Higuera. She was brought to the police station last night and closely questioned, and from her it was learned where her son had been born, and he was found late last night at the home of a relative on Downey Road, about six blocks from where he resided. Sergt. Lee and Simons and Officers Friesly and Bailey made the arrest.

Higuera was questioned for some time, and the four officers were given information as to where they might capture the other two men. Carlos Martinez and his wife, Eddie Sanzana, were captured in a small cabin in a potato patch in Cudahy, where they had just moved from Los Angeles during the day. They refused to divulge their names, but later learned the cabin bore the name of Martinez and the man was placed under arrest.

A visit was made to an apartment-house in Los Angeles, where it is stated Sanzana's brother was a roomer. They found the brother there and inquired for Eddie Sanzana, but were informed he was not there. The police, however, found him and took him and found him in bed. The three were all placed in the local jail, and it is stated they have made a complete confession as to the hold-up and the shooting, it being said that Sanzana fired the bullet which struck Pitzer. All the men are Mexicans.

Ring Champion Wins Decision at Court Trial

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, June 3.—Fapek Papek, former middleweight boxing champion, and now a resident of Alameda, earned the referee's nod in the legal arena today when he successfully defended himself in Justice Court here against a charge of battery brought by Charles T. Fetherston. Fetherston opened today's engagement by declaring that he had been invited upon Papek's property by the contractor in charge of work there, but that the ex-pugil had reverted to his ring tactics and forcibly thrown him off the premises.

Papek cleverly parried this blow by asserting that Fetherston's dog, accompanying its master, had made tracks for the door, and that he thereupon invited Fetherston to leave with the animal. The legal knockout came with an argument straight from the shoulder in which Papek averred that he had requested Fetherston's departure a second time, and that his action was forthcoming, he politely led the unwelcome guest to the street without harming him.

The court told Fetherston that he should have headed the second warning.

MYSTERY TRIAL ON

'Death of Mystery Woman Charged with Trick-Surgery'

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE
SANTA ANA, June 3.—Rafael Graham of Talbert, who is said to have cunningly contrived a trap door through the shingled roof of the J. G. Parsons store at Talbert, where many nocturnal visits will be made to the store trial today before a jury in Superior Court, charged with burglary.

Graham, by repeated visits of a burglar, who never touched a door or window, it appeared, the management finally discovered the section sawed, through the roof, & a trap was laid with marked coins and a string. The next day Graham made a purchase at the store with one of the coins. At the time a considerable quantity of loot was discovered, it is asserted. Graham was defended today by Attorney Morris A. Cain. The trial is scheduled for 10 a.m., was delayed to await the arrival of overflow jurors from another department of the court.

SEEK MEXICAN YOUTH

'Ventura County Officers in Search of Young Man Charged With Murderous Assault'

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

VENTURA, June 3.—Sheriff Robert Clark and a posse of deputies today are seeking Fidel Cervantes, a youth of Somis, accused of stabbing Angel Alvarado, 18, also of Somis. Alvarado lies at the point of death in St. John's Hospital, Oxnard, intermittently conscious, with a knife wound in his left lung and a deep gash in his right arm, a result of an argument and fight last evening with Cervantes. The boy's blood-soaked coat and shirt, with great slashes in the fabrics, are held at the Sheriff's office as evidence.

More Delay in Proposed New Auto Highway

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

ARCADIA, June 3.—A new stumbling block in the way of projects to open Huntington Drive and Colorado avenue through the Baldwin estate was revealed here today by Mayor A. N. Miltner in an announcement that several cities had protested the fifty-year clause in the agreement with Mrs. Anita Parker.

This clause specifies that no more than half the land shall be condemned for highway purposes for fifty years if the Baldwin heirs furnish rights of way for these two boulevards.

Miltner met representatives of Sierra Madre, El Monte and Pasadena yesterday, at which time formal protest to the clause was made by the two cities, and the same between Arcadia and Mrs. Baldwin.

Cervantes and Alvarado started an argument in the yard, according to the story told the Sheriff, and Cervantes drew his pocketknife. Flores stood by George A. Lathrop, manager of the company.

In accepting the city's offer the water company allowed $42,000 to the city for the survey of the city's survey by City Engineer Ernest F. Frobush and Consulting Engineer J. E. Sellers, which was $32,861, which was accepted by George A. Lathrop, manager of the company.

BETTER TONE IN DRY GOODS LINE

May Wholesale and Retail Sales in Large Gain

Credit Situation Reported Better Than Year Ago

Rayon Becoming Popular in Southern California

May sales in the wholesale and retail dry goods business in Southern California showed an improvement of approximately 15 per cent over the corresponding month of last year and June sales are starting off at a fast pace, according to a statement made yesterday by Milton G. Cooper, president and general manager of the Milton G. Cooper Dry Goods Company, wholesalers of Los Angeles.

The wholesale and retail dry goods business in this territory in the first four months of the year was not up to expectations due primarily to the unseasonable weather and heavy rains. Wholesalers are now preparing for one of the best fall seasons since Mr. Cooper stated. The recent rains and the general improvement of conditions throughout the State are expected to stimulate trade.

The readjustment of wholesale prices in the ever-living during the past two months has brought about a better feeling in the trade. The reductions ranged from 4 to 10 per cent and affected all lines and commodity groups.

The reduction in the price of denim has stimulated business in the overall and apparel line.

Since the reduction of rug prices last April, the rug business in this territory has shown a 35 per cent improvement over a year ago.

The heavy cotton business, including sheets and sheeting, lagged until the middle of May when prices were reduced.

"Rayon is becoming more popular with each season," Mr. Cooper said.

Rather than supplanting silk, rayon appears to eliminate the sale of silk. Silks, rayon and fancy cotton prints are leading the piece goods line, while silk chiffon and rayon hose are unusually popular. With the inauguration of our dress business this spring our dress business has increased 600 per cent over last year, demonstrating the popularity of rayon materials.

"Wholesale and other continue favorable throughout the summer and fall months. Southern California should go ahead rapidly regardless of what happens in other sections of the country. The trade is reported in better spirits and there is a better feeling among the buyers."

The credit situation in this territory is the best in many months.

It is due partly to the fact that retailers as a whole are not carrying large stocks of merchandise.

But are depending more on rapid turnover. The result is that balanced stock and rapid turnover is proving to be the most successful.

"Los Angeles is becoming more popular as a wholesale dry goods market, this authority states. Los Angeles wholesalers are finding a ready market for their goods in the Hawaiian Islands, in the West Coast, Mexico and in the Philippines Islands, where conditions are also reported much improved."

STANDARD MAKES REPORT

Initial Balance Sheet Shows Strong Position; Capital Gains Slower Than Assets and Net

BY EARL E. CROWE

How the Standard Oil Company of California actually shapes up after the inclusion of the Pacific Oil Company is learned for the first time from the initial consolidated balance sheet published in the current issue of the Standard Oil Bulletin. By comparison with the consolidated statements of the two companies over the past few years stockholders can arrive at some sort of an idea relating to future growth and the possible distributions in stock and cash that might accrue.

The balance sheet, prepared as of January 1, last, introduces to the stock market a company that seems particularly well entrenched along most lines. Confining attention solely to financial condition and omitting consideration of physical operations, the consolidated balance sheet discloses total assets of $887,078,111.55 plus a current of $193,078,491.52. The ratio of current assets to current liabilities figures out about four to one.

ASSETS EXPAND

As to the prospects of increasing the capital within the next year or so, a comparison with the periodic increases made in the past indicates a strong possibility. Over the last two years the consolidated statements show that on the average earnings and assets have grown at the rate of 10 per cent, while capital has lagged behind.

Concerning the likelihood of a higher cash dividend, there is not so much encouragement on the part of the figures and the probability of a dividend increase for dividends of the company will be maintained. The Standard Oil have never followed the policy of varying the dividend rate to conform to certain percentages of earnings, but rather have done so with infinite care on par value. If a fixed percentage of earnings were followed, a different story might result.

For the last two years, it will be difficult to assign any fixed part of earnings increase to capital expenditures. It is conceivable that the two companies in 1925, will ultimately find reflection in net income. The assets of the combined companies increased 24 per cent in 1924 over 1923, while the earnings increased 15 per cent. If a fixed rate is to be the fixed rate, a higher dividend might be expected this year.

Both companies in the past have plowed earnings back liberally into property. This is also required for these expenditures to show up in earnings. While it is difficult to assign any fixed part of earnings increase to capital expenditures, it is conceivable that the two companies in 1925, will ultimately find reflection in net income. The assets of the combined companies increased 24 per cent in 1924 over 1923, while the earnings increased 15 per cent. In the previous year, assets were 4 per cent larger than in 1923, and earnings were 15 per cent higher.

CAPITALIZATION LAGS

For the two-year period the average increase of assets and earnings is about the same, 15 per cent. There is a disparity between these increases and the growth of capital for capital increased less than 1 per cent in 1924 over 1923, and about 1 per cent in 1923 over 1922. The average for the two years is 4 per cent, which is comparable to the average of 15 per cent for assets and earnings.

Although the period of capitalization is not spread over a long number of years, it does afford an insight into growth. In the matter of capital increases, for example, Standard Oil expanded its output, and general stock about 10 per cent in 1925, and 12 per cent in 1922 over 1921.

The large surplus of nearly $100,000,000 that the new company allows ought to be for the near future. The equity of the stock in the surplus is about $15 a share, while the equity in tangible assets is approximately $40 a share. The bonds of the company are held in surplus have no relation to market price, but they do indicate the strength of asset position and the possibility of capitalization.

What the management of a company can do and what it will do are two different things, as the stockholders of the United States Steel Corporation and the American Tobacco Company have learned recently. The investors in equities, nevertheless, win out in the long run, as some of the Standard Oil stockholders have learned.

Mr. Spence was recently elected president of the Los Angeles Credit Men's Association. He will take office September 1.

Speaks Over Radio

Farris R. Miller, manager of the Better Business Bureau of the Advertising Club of Los Angeles, last night gave a radio address on "How the Better Business Bureau Helps the Prospective Investor." Mr. Miller had a wide experience in checking frauds and investigating all classes of investment propositions.

This was the fifth of a series of radio investment talks given by prominent Southern California investment authorities.

Marine Oil Pays

The regular monthly dividend of 1 per cent a share was declared by the board of directors of the Marine Corporation yesterday, payable on the 15th instant to stockholders of record on the 10th. This distribution will go to 1,300 shareholders owning 175,000 certificates, it was stated.

New Heir Arrives

The birth of a seven-and-one-half-pound son, who will be known as David Baird Hargreaves, was announced yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Hargreaves. Mr. Hargreaves is president of the Liberty National Bank of Beverly Hills, and was formerly identified with Los Angeles banks. Mrs. Hargreaves is the youngest daughter of the late William Jennings Bryan. The new arrival is the fourth child in the Hargreaves family.

BUSINESS PHILOSOPHY

BY WILLIAM FEATHER

FOR every large "vested interest" there are a hundred thousand little vested interests."

The little vested interests would be amusing if they did not have a pathetic side.

We observe people building protective fences around their jobs; making valuable information inaccessible; concealing the details of their duties; resisting any suggestions for the simplification of their routine.

I have known men who deliberately surrounded themselves with substandard subordinates in order that their own fees might seem to glow more brightly. They welcomed inexplicable mistakes and inefficiency on the part of others, believing that their own ability to untangle knots somehow lifted them to a plane of indispensability.

These vested interests are most annoying. A courageous, energetic executive will not tolerate them. Periodically he administers a tonic which takes the form of a spring cleaning. It's expensive and unpleasant, but necessary to business health.

NEW YORK, June 3.—

The common stock of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation today was placed on an annual dividend basis of $10 per share by the board of directors who, following this action, authorized a special meeting of the shareholders to vote on a proposal to increase the authorized number of no par shares of common stock from 450,000 to 1,000,000.

The meeting will be June 25. The dividend will be payable $2 quarterly in cash and the remaining $2 in cash or stock, at the option of the corporation.

MEXICAN RAILWAY RATES FIXED BY OWN APPOINTEES

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

MEXICO CITY, June 3.—Two technical committees will be established on the 9th instant by the National Railways of Mexico in compliance with the agreement of June 18, 1922, according to statements made at the Finance Ministry here. This is the arrangement reached between the Mexican Finance Minister Panzi and the International Committee of Bankers on Mexico in New York, which resulted in the nationalization of the railways from the government administration to private management.

The importance of the tariff committee lies in the fact that, in accordance with the terms of the agreement, it will designate all transportation charges and, moreover, they will have to be enforced by the Mexican government under the terms of the agreement.

It is also stated that no reductions whatever may be made without consulting the tariff committee.

The other committee, known as the efficiency committee, is in charge of the necessary adjustments in salaries, expenditures and tariffs in order that the railways may meet the requirements of the market.

The committee will discuss and approve all collective contracts of labor with the railroads.

Following the rules for workmen's compensation, local conditions will be taken into account.

Weather conditions are good. Due to heavy receipts fruit and produce prices are lower. Cantaloupes and peaches prices steady. Prospects for a banner bean crop are favorable.

Prices Advance on Favorable Trade Developments

Buying Stimulated by Low Call Money Rates

New "Nickel Plate" May Talk Boosts Rails

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE
NEW YORK, June 3.—Prices made further recovery yesterday in response to a series of favorable financial and trade developments. These included the ratification of the Fats debt agreement, lower call money rates, the publication of better government statistics on general consumption and the continuation of record-breaking freight tonnage.

Trading showed a substantial increase in volume, the day's aggregate being 1,645,200 shares compared with 1,387,269 yesterday.

Large blocks of 1,000 to 1,500 shares changed hands during day, particularly in the rail group, where urgent short covering appeared to be in progress.

Reports on a number of new or revised unofficial rules of the Van Sweringens were present to announce a new "Nickel Plate" merger plan; the terms of which, while not yet worked out, would be given by representatives of the board of directors.

"NICKEL PLATE" UP

"Nickel Plate" common advanced to 187 1/2 from 179 1/2 yesterday and Ohio crossed 111, a gain of more than 3 points.

Mack Trucks and Hudson assumed the leadership of the rail group, each closing 3 points higher at 112 1/2 and 110 1/2 respectively.

General Motors reached a new high on the current record of 120.

Chrysler, Willys-Overland, Hupp and Stromberg-Carbone closed a point or so higher.

Both railroads and steel were well up.

While the market was up, it was sold, and a figure of 25 points was added.

It was a figure of 25 points.

'DEAR OLD LADY' OBJECT OF HUNT

Her Bouncy Ways Deceive to Extent of $3000

Californian Would Like to Know About Oil Stock

Acquaintance Made on Boat Coming to West Coast

An asserted bumbo artist in the form of a woman, 60 years of age with twinkling, squinty eyes, and a "bouncy" manner, was the object of a police search late yesterday following the report of Mrs. Margaret Nemesacher, a visitor in Highland, Cal., that she had been swindled out of $3000 in cash by the woman.

"She was dressed such a dear old lady," said Mrs. Nemesacher to the police, "when she got on board a steamship at Havana. We were en route from New York via the canal. She was rather fat and full of conversation and bounced about the best calling everybody 'honey' and 'dear.'

"After several days' acquaintance she confided that she owned great deal of property in California and had some valuable rights which she would sell to me for $3000. She said they would bring me $10,000 in a short time and $500,000 altogether."

Then Mrs. Nemesacher told how, after she became a visitor at the home of friends in Highland, the "dear old lady" wrote and wired to her from San Diego and San Francisco and finally met her in Los Angeles, where she waited and gave her a typewriter contract in return for the money.

That was more than a month ago, Mrs. Nemesacher, told the police, and she had not heard from the "dear old lady" since.

Tiff With Bride Costs $75 When Police Find Rum

It costs $75 to have a spat with your bride, Jacques Jaccard, said to be a motion-picture director, discovered yesterday in Municipal Judge Turney's court. Jaccard was fined for possession of liquor to which he was guilty, and his wife, Mrs. Katherine Jaccard, took the stand and told the circumstances.

"I had a little tiff," she said. "We told my mother and Mr. and Mrs. mother and sister came over and I decided I didn't want them mixing in a family quarrel and told them to go away."

The next thing I knew police came bursting into the house. They searched it all over and found a bottle of whisky."

Girl Visits License Office With Other Fellow So Now Wedding Plans Are Off

Clara Bow has had a violent quarrel with her former flame, Gilbert Rowland, and now is not going to marry anybody, she announced yesterday. All as the result of a joke. On Wednesday Miss Bow, went to the marriage bureau with Robert Savage, former football star, arriving just after closing time.

"I had no intention of getting a license or marrying him," she explained, "but when I told him about him, Mr. Rowland heard about it and we quarreled and our engagement is broken."

Rowland, she said, accused her of breaking the trip with flattery of publicity purposes. Anything of that kind, she said, was far from her mind.

Make-up School Proprietor Gets Sixty-Day Term

Slity days' imprisonment and $500 fine and an additional suspended sentence of sixty days were imposed by Municipal Judge Pope yesterday to Harry Heaton, proprietor of a so-called make-up school. Heaton was convicted on Wednesday of an attempt to enter his studio and of operating an employment agency without a license.

Heaton was one of several arrested recently in a drive by the radar of the city. He was indicted by Presiding Judge Stephens yesterday to serve for two days what he was to his studio and of operating an employment agency without a license.

Heaton was in Sacramento on May 29, 1925, to inspect schools which are assured to promise employment to their students.

LOS ANGELES HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES' REUNION TOMORROW

Greetings to alumni of the Los Angeles High School, who will conduct their first annual reunion tomorrow, June 5, at 8 a.m. in the school cafeteria, were received yesterday in a telegram from Principal Emeritus Wohl, who is in Chicago on the last lap of his around-the-world tour. The telegram reads:

"May the alumni have joy in meeting; the faculty have joy in the privilege of being hosts; students have in making Chairman of the program a success; those whom they soon will join."

Following the banquet tomorrow night the alumni have been invited to the glee club's production of "The Girl Friend," which will be given at the auditorium of the Cadman's new opera.

A reception and dance will be given in the gymnasium for those who do not wish to attend the opera.

PARKING PLACE
What this country needs is a Ford that a man can hang on a rack in the cafeteria while he is getting his waffles.

TOO PROUD TO FIGHT
Some men are reputed to be good-natured because they haven't the nerve to fight for their rights. They are easy because they are timid.

BIG FIGURES
There are over 800,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 possible combinations of the English alphabet, so that a man may be excused for not understanding what baby says.

KEEP GROWING
The infant mortality rate is lower in Glendale than in any other city of consequence in the country. This is one of the reasons why Glendale grows so rapidly. The births are numerous and the babies live.

THE NEW CHIEF
This Prof. Moscicki, who has been suddenly boosted into the Presidency of Poland, is described as being a gentleman, a scholar and an inventor. It is hoped that he may be able to invent a stabilizer that will give his country a degree of peace and rest.

POLICE PROTECTION
A police lieutenant in Chicago was arrested while delivering liquor to a saloon. By using the policemen as rum-runners and bootleggers the industry is able to get a slice of protection. No wonder there are so many places in which the contraband stuff is openly sold.

OUT OF THE PARTY
If the English Liberals are putting Lloyd George out of their party they can't be so dog-eared liberal as they pretend. The eloquent Welshman can always find a party to go to. He might come to Hollywood. Hollywood is famous for its parties and Lloyd George would be welcome as an after-dinner entertainer.

PLAYING THE GAME
Walter Johnson, the star of the box, won his 400th game as a pitcher the other day and was victorious in the first six of seven starts this season. Walter has been in baseball for twenty years and has always been clean and amiable. He plays a gentleman's game and conveys genuine lustre upon our national pastime. The American boy may safely look up to him as a model of honest sportsmanship.

HISTORY REPEATS
Records show that women used cosmetics 2000 or 3000 years ago. It is possible that their use was not as general, but the smart set gave the processes more attention and devotion than they do today. The ancient Romans, Egyptians and Greeks wrote and studied more over the oils and ungents for the complexion than the experts are doing today. They left a whole flock of writings about beautifiers and complexion aids and the scientists of old labored in their laboratories to gladden their women just as they do today. The ladies dabbled with their skins in the days of Cleopatra just as they do in the time of Helen of Troy, New York.

ASKING MUCH
The head of the University of Virginia is reported as expressing the opinion that the women of today are exacting more from the bridegroom in these days than they ever asked before. They want their husbands to have more virtues and more money than ever. But it is not certain that they are getting what they ask. The men of today are under suspicion. They are not all Galahads. Some of them play poker for money and a few of them lunch with their stenographers. The wife isn't supposed to stand for this wildness, but, of course, she doesn't always know. What is wanted is a world of men who are able to live up to the expectations and hopes of their women. That would be lovely.

THE RISING GENERATION
High-school pupils are debating modern freedom of thought and action as indicated by the young men and women of America. Is it wholesome or will it prove detrimental? There is plenty of rich argument on both sides. At a recent meeting of rival debaters of Alhambra and Long Beach schools one of the orators bluntly argued that the petting and necking parties and the familiarity between the sexes has a tendency to break down the home and spoil the finer sensibilities of life. Representatives of Long Beach, however, argued that the young men and women of today are not much different from the youth of sixty or 100 years ago. The only difference is that the youngsters get more notoriety out of it now. But it is well for the students to analyze and criticize themselves. The proper study of mankind is man.

OUR CIVIC CENTER
The announced intention of the United States government to start preparation of plans for a new Federal building and post office for Los Angeles should arouse the people of the city to the necessity of the joint adoption by the city and county governments of a definite, comprehensive Civic Center plan. For the new Federal building will be located in the Civic Center as will the union railroad passenger depot and the $5,000,000 City Hall soon to rise there. The vote of the people on April 30 in favor of a union depot located at the Civic Center was another unmistakable ratification of the people's decision of two years ago in favor of locating north of First street a group of public buildings that will serve and be worthy of Los Angeles for generations to come in beauty, convenience and accessibility.

The Civic Center, however, is like Topsy—just growing up, without system or plan. A man who would build a house by such methods would be considered most foolish. And yet, that is just what the city and county governments are doing with the Civic Center project—letting it drift along without intelligent planning or co-operation. The lack of an agreement as to a Civic Center plan is largely due to the attitude of the Cryer-Parrot city administration, which, in furtherance of its scheme to seize control of the county government, has consistently made war in every possible way on the County Supervisors. The county Civic Center Committee, which was appointed to examine all Civic Center plans and to formulate a program that both the city and county governments could adopt, and then build in accordance with that plan, has died, chiefly because of the opposition of the Cryer-Parrot machine.

The time has arrived, in the opinion of The Times, for the citizens of Los Angeles themselves to take steps to realize a beautiful, expertly planned Civic Center. A number of plans for the location of public buildings, of streets to serve these buildings and for landscaping to give the buildings a beautiful setting have been prepared and there are excellent ideas in all of them. In the opinion of The Times, a Citizens' Civic Center Committee should be organized and this committee, with the advice of disinterested experts—architects, landscape engineers and city planners—should carefully examine all Civic Center plans and suggestions, as well as make a survey of the city, county, State and Federal governmental building needs for years to come. Then, utilizing all the available sound and practicable features of all plans, this board should offer to the people of Los Angeles and to the city and county governments a Civic Center plan for adoption. Unless action of this kind is taken now the people may expect to see their Civic Center hope ground to pieces in the cogs of parity Parrot politics.

SPREADING ITSELF
Blithely spreading itself for a week of jubilation over the results it has accomplished during the last fiscal year and planning new and greater deeds of achievement, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, with characteristic enterprise, is making itself better known to the people of this city and vigorously blowing its trumpet to the world.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
The chamber's program for the week is aimed in order that the members of that splendid organization, which for fifty-one other weeks of the year co-operates with other bodies in the celebration of special events and "weeks," may celebrate its own affairs and conduct a rousing campaign for new membership. The chamber was established thirty-eight years ago and has made steady progress ever since, now numbering approximately 15,000 members. The city has reached a size where it feels the need of the support of a still larger Chamber of Commerce in order to carry out the many plans of trade and industrial development. The officers of the chamber hope to add at least 1000 new members to their list by the end of the present drive and eventually to raise the membership to 20,000.

ONCE UPON A TIME
Once upon a time there was a "Public Utilities Day," a "Coming Generation Day," a day for bringing in the mayors and presidents of commercial bodies from every city in the Southland, a "Harbor Day" and a "Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce Day," set aside for familiarizing the whole city with the activities of the chamber. This last day is frankly admitted by the members as one in which the chamber, which has blown the horn for every other city organization and worthy activity, will do a little blowing in its own behalf.

Let it not be as loudly as it will. Los Angeles is with it first, last and all the time!

NEVADA DIVORCES
Nevada's Governor is in wrong with a Washington journal because he threatened to prosecute the editor for holding the State up to ridicule and contempt in an article on its easy divorce laws. The editor now gets back at the Governor by campaigning to make the Sagebrush State another South Carolina, which does not grant divorces under any circumstances. He asks everybody to write to Senator Eddie of Nevada, who is up for re-election this year, to make the divorce bill a leading issue and to put a strong ant离婚 plank in his platform. Doubtless the Senator will be besieged by letters from moralists opposed to divorce, but, as nearly all of them will come from people outside the State, they will have little influence with him.

THAT DIVORCE IS STILL QUITE POPULAR IN NEVADA
That divorce is still quite popular in Nevada is shown by a Census Bureau report that, while there were 1073 marriages in the State last year, there was almost an equal number of legal marital disruptions, or 1087. The ratio of divorces to population was one to seventy-five, while in California, which nearly topped the list of States with 12,000 divorces, the ratio was 1 to 200.

NEVADA DESPITE THIS SHOWING IS QUITE SENSITIVE AS TO CRITICISM CONCERNING IT
And doubles will resent the suggestion of the libelous Washington Journal, which says that its name should be changed to State of Divorce.

AS THE FEDERAL CONSTITUTION DOES NOT COVER THE SUBJECT OF MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE
there are hardly two States in which the conditions governing them are identical, and to make a South Carolina out of Nevada is, in street parlance, going to be "some job."

THE RISING GENERATION
High-school pupils are debating modern freedom of thought and action as indicated by the young men and women of America. Is it wholesome or will it prove detrimental? There is plenty of rich argument on both sides. At a recent meeting of rival debaters of Alhambra and Long Beach schools one of the orators bluntly argued that the petting and necking parties and the familiarity between the sexes has a tendency to break down the home and spoil the finer sensibilities of life. Representatives of Long Beach, however, argued that the young men and women of today are not much different from the youth of sixty or 100 years ago. The only difference is that the youngsters get more notoriety out of it now. But it is well for the students to analyze and criticize themselves. The proper study of mankind is man.

SOME PUNISHMENT
A young man who still has to pay nine installments upon his girl's engagement ring says that he feels as if in solitary confinement.

Paying Chinese Soldiers

LOS ANGELES, June 4.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I notice in a paragraph in your issue of this morning, Part II, page 8, that I am reported as saying that the Chinese government has paid its soldiers in opium. I thought that in what I said at the meeting of the City Club I had made it plain that the men who did this were certain military leaders. These men do not obey the orders of the central government and are prone to raise funds in all sorts of irregular ways, and this cannot be charged to the Peking government.

"Schools as Merchants"

LOS ANGELES, June 4.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In your editorial of Tuesday, June 1, you take occasion to call attention to the fact that the retail druggists have a complaint to make against the Los Angeles schools because, as the druggists assert, and as you seem to agree, the schools are competing with the merchants for the trade of the children.

Particular attention is called to the fact that children cannot leave the school premises at noon without a permit. It is held up as a rather startling thing—apparently looked upon as something in the nature of a crime—that the schools have "full-fledged" cafeterias and at school stores such articles of merchandise as candy, ice cream and sodas are sold.

This, you point out, works a hardship on real estate speculators who purchased frontage adjacent to projected school buildings and, relying on the trade of the children, built stores and leased them to small merchants. You invite the question, are new schoolhouses built for educational or speculative reasons?

It seems to the writer that had you taken this matter up with the school authorities, before bursting so indignantly into print, you might not have so burst. For I am sure that the authorities could have and would have given you valid reasons for the practice!

First, the School Board does not finance these enterprises. They are purely local school and student undertakings and the profits, if any, are used for the purchase of many things needed that the law does not permit the board to spend. Second, the food and the material is well cooked, wholesome, cheap and sold at prices that bear the cost of service. This is beneficial to many of the students whose lunch funds are limited to a few cents a day. It is also a benefit to their parents, who cannot afford to give them the necessary money to eat expensive drug-store lunch-counter meals.

But there is another prima facie reason to justify the practice, namely, that the school authorities are responsible for the conduct of the students during the full school day. If the students were allowed to leave the grounds at noon and got into trouble, as students will, the parents would be the first to go to the school authorities and protest against lack of discipline. Where we place so heavy a responsibility must give us a corresponding degree of authority and the school officials are merely exercising that authority for the benefit of the pupils, their parents and the entire school system.

T. F. TREATY OBSTRUCTORS

LOS ANGELES, June 1.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In this morning's issue you state that "America would be the last country to violate a treaty of any kind,"

Well, how about Roosevelt's conduct with Colombia in 1903? Let me say to our honor that during Harding's administration we made some amends to Colombia for that violation.

We had a treaty with Colombia in which we plodded ourselves to protect her from the very act which we ourselves committed. Did our pledge to protect her from others give us the right to commit the same offense ourselves?

I am with you in condemning the hypocrisy of other nations, but we must be careful to see that we are not from the charge ourselves. Being an American of 300 years lineage, I think I have a right to say this.

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

One of the most interesting announcements of the season is that made recently by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Allen Phillips of 4 Berkeley Square of the engagement of their attractive daughter, Miss Katherine Louise Phillips, to John Lind Carson Rollins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Carson Rollins (Mrs. Carson Rollins of Gramercy Place). No date is set as yet for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and Miss Phillips were among the passengers aboard the S.S. Alexander which made a very successful and delightful trip from New York City through the Panama Canal. Stops were made at Miami and Havana.

Miss Phillips was one of the charter members of the League of Girls of the Children of the Junior League, being a member of its official family, and she is also a member of the Spinsters.

For Bride-Bliss

Among the delightfully planned affairs given as prenuptial courtesies in honor of Miss Mona Wood, fiancee of William Barnard Martin, was the Chinese luncheon with which Mrs. Ralph Hagan entertained the guests at her home on South Lake street. The entire motif and appointments carrying out the Chinese idea. The table was centered with a royal Chinese embroidery and a great Canton bowl, lined with aromatic fragrant incense. The linen, came from Tien-tsin and the Canton china of the luncheon service was also brought from the Flower Kingdom by the hostess. The menu was all out Chinese, decorated with chopsticks and Chinese place cards and favors marked the covers for sixteen guests, intimate friends of the charming young bride.

Miss Frances Haynes will sing "I Love You Truly" and "Oh, Promise Me," preceding the ceremony of the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Robert Howard are again at their home on Fremont Place after a most delightful tour abroad. While they visited all the principal cities on the continent, they also toured many places where the ordinary traveler does not have the opportunity to visit, including North Africa. They are planning to pass the summer in Los Angeles.

Wedding Announced

Formal announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Mary Granthay of 1622 Bonnie Brae street to George Jarrus of Athens. The ceremony will take place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride, with Rev. George Wormer officiating. The house was decorated with a profusion of artificial and live flowers of weddngs. Mr. and Mrs. Jarrus left for their wedding trip. They will make their home in Athens. Twenty guests were bidden.

Bridge-Luncheon

Mrs. Chester Clay Miller of 1314 Orange Grove avenue entertained with a beautifully appointed bridge-luncheon at the Hollywood Country Club recently after noon in honor of Mrs. E. J. Miller of Jefferson City, Mo., and Mrs. Alfred Latham of Hollywood, who has returned recently from passing the winter in Alabama. The round table was most distinctive, with its arrangement of pink and French blue, a huge basket filled with gladioli, delphinium and larkspur tied with tulip occupying the center. Tall blue taper in pink and white candlesticks were on either side, and the place cards were tied with tulle to the handles of tiny baskets serving as nut cups. Covers were arranged for twenty guests, including besides the host and guests of honor, Mrs. Mabel Cahn, Mrs. M. Baker, Mrs. G. Simpson, Mrs. S. A. Lewis, Mrs. William Wagner, Mrs. George Deegan, Mrs. E. J. Reid, Mrs. W. W. Fleming, Mrs. J. W. Jacobson, Mrs. N. W. Davenport, Mrs. V. N. Johnson, Mrs. C. Long, Mrs. Vic Wagner and Mrs. C. L. Hammond of Jefferson City.

Wedding Plans

The marriage of Miss Rae C. Bauermeister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bauermeister of South Orange Drive, to Richard F. Owen, son of Mrs. Jessie M. Owen of South Wilton Place, will be one of the events of tomorrow, the ceremony taking place at 3 o'clock in Westlake Presbyterian Church, with Rev. G. A. Briggle, D.D., officiating. 250 guests having been bidden.

The bride will be given into the keeping of the bridegroom at the altar by her father, and Mr. William Bauermeister, Jr. (Lavelle Roberts), will assist as matron of honor, while Miss Marion D. Lewis and Miss Lillian Silcock will be the bridesmaids. Robert F. Owen will serve his brother as best man and his father, Mr. William Bauermeister and William Bauermeister Jr., brothers of the bride.

Miss Frances Haynes will sing

"I Love You Truly" and "Oh,

Promise Me," preceding the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Robert Howard are again at their home on Fremont Place after a most delightful tour abroad. While they visited all the principal cities on the continent, they also toured many places where the ordinary traveler does not have the opportunity to visit, including North Africa. They are planning to pass the summer in Los Angeles.

only kind of soap to use on your face is a soap made basically for that purpose. Rinsing your complexion with an unperfumed soap is folly.

Before Palmolive came, women were told "use no soap on your face" then were judged too harsh.

Then came this famous beauty creation. A soap made by experts in beauty solely for ONE purpose: to safeguard the complexion. A soap made of rare cosmetic oils, to be used freely, lavishly on the skin. A soap, thus, that changed the beauty habits of the world.

Leading skin authorities urge it. Most of the pretty skins you see today are largely due to it. Launder, cleanse with any soap you wish. But when beauty is at stake, take care.

Start the day in the following way for one week... note the improvement in your skin.

The rule for gentle skin and pores cleansing

Wash your face gently with Palmolive Soap, massaging it softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that is all.

Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge if you wish, but never have them on over night. They often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away.

Get real Palmolive

Do not use ordinary soaps in the treatment given above. Do not think any green soap, or represented as of palm oil and olive oil, is the same as Palmolive.

HER ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

No Date Yet Chosen for Wedding Rites

[National Illustrated News Syndicate]
Miss Katherine Louise Phillips

WITH their return from an extended trip in the East, comes the annual engagement of Miss Katherine Louise Phillips, daughter of John Lind Carson Rollins of 1245 Gramercy Place. No date has been set as yet for the wedding.

The authorities I have consulted all state that the treatment consists in rest in bed for a varying time, depending upon the severity of the case, with a slight elevation of the part. Some physicians use cold applications for the first 24 hours, later heat and a fomentation.

BABY KEEPS COUPLE OUT OF DIVORCE

Mother Asserts Second Thought Was for Child and Suit Dismissed

Mrs. Zella Josephine Knowles, when she thought about the attitude of Harry Knowles, believed she owed it to herself to get a divorce, but when she thought about a 3-year-old Dolores Makine Knowles she decided she did not want one, as she told Presiding Judge Stephens yesterday.

Knowles and Mrs. Knowles appeared in Judge Stephens' court yesterday to dismiss the suit for divorce she had filed previously. They talked the matter over and decided they both had made mistakes and that we will try to overlook them for the sake of our baby," the mother said.

Mr. Judge Stephen made the proceedings "smooth and rapid," he remarked. "If more parents would take this sensible view this would be a better world for thousands of innocent children."

In the compact Mrs. Knowles charged that her husband kicked her, dragged her from her bed by the hair, swore at her and threatened her life.

The Woman and Her Job

BY VALERIE WATROUS

(Illustrations concerning the problems of women will be answered in this column.)

WHERE DO YOU STAND?

The doctor seems to mind the other day when I encountered a woman who told me she was working as a children's nurse. She was very quiet, and the leg must have been massaged at all on account of danger in loosening it. Later, when the fever is gone, there is no sign of inflammation, and the doctor has given a massage. (Do Lee.) The clothes should not rest on the legs for thirty years. "I have children," she told me. "I wish to earn a living, so I have a job to them."

Child psychology. Never had heard of it. Told her charges "hook" stories because their eyes always look so big and funny. When I suggested that she might be indicating which child would be most likely to be a troublemaker, she said, "I don't know if people would give me the job if I told them I was so bad."

WATER TAPPING. Mrs. G.—The baby should be given at least twice a day. It should be boiled and cooled before giving.

Water taping is the mother of these two evils. I have seen many cases where the baby has been given water every day and leaves the house to cook for them.

Water taping is the habit of the adrenals and tonsils, but later may bring on a long course of serious troubles.

Water taping is the cause of many diseases.

Water taping is the

'HOUR' COURTS ESTABLISHED

Cases Requiring Less Than Sixty Minutes Will Get Early Hearings by Order

As another step in his program of revising Superior Court procedure so as to expedite litigation, Presiding Judge Stephens, the other judges of the court concurring, yesterday promulgated a new court rule establishing a "short-cause calendar."

Under this order one or more departments will be assigned for hearing cases that will take less than one hour. These cases will be carried on a separate docket, thus giving them a chance to be heard long before they would if they had to await their turn on the general calendar.

Cases will be placed on the "short-cause calendar" on the application of counsel, provided it is agreed setting forth that hearing will not consume more than one hour. So as to discourage ill-considered applications for such docketing, it is further provided by the order that if a case upon coming up for hearing in the "short-cause" department goes over one hour, the proceedings shall be stopped immediately and vacated, and the whole matter set down at the foot of the general calendar.

The immediate result of the new arrangement will be that scores of cases now docketed for hearing in the latter part of 1927, can be tried in July. The department will not be established until after notice shall have been published thirty days.

Disabled War Veterans Given Spanish Supper

The disabled veterans at California Hut were the guests yesterday of the four parlors of Native Sons of the Golden West and one parlor of Native Daughters of the Golden West, seated at the 1925 South Figueroa street. The committee in charge included Mrs. Mary K. Corcoran, Mrs. Grace Norton, Mrs. White, and Miss Grace Johnson, the operator of the Mrs. Katherine Ronan, Burrill Neighbors, Andrew Stofel, Gabriel Ruiz and John W. Topham, president of the six parlors, and Mrs. Florence Donon, Mrs. Zimmerman, R. M. Widney, Municipal Judge Russell and Walter Baskerville.

The organizations pledged themselves to aid the veterans in establishing the California Hut on a firm business basis. It was said the wax modeling and wood working departments are both doing a thriving business and that the leather, reed and photographic departments are picking up.

SCOTTISH CLUB PLANS DANCE

Prof. N. S. Ewing, principal of Pasadena High School, will deliver the commencement address at the graduation exercises of the University High School, the college preparatory department of the University of Southern California, this evening in Board Auditorium. Thirty-fifth and University avenues. Principal M. M. Thompson will preside and honor students of the graduating class comprising forty-six outgoing high school seniors are Iona Sturm and Lois Rice. This completes the first year of the University High School spent in a building of its own, at Thirty-fifth and Hoover streets.

Elaine Allen and Her Huskies for "College Flirt;" Madge Bellamy Meets Famous Animal Impersonator; Larry Semen to Go Abroad

BY GRACE KINGSLY

If Babe Daniels just will persist in falling off things when doing athletic stunts, at least Paramount is going to see to it that there are some sure-fire athletic doings in her pictures. "College Flirt," and to that end they are surrounding her with gymnastic experts.

Now, it is Elaine Allen, the world's champion woman sprinter, at present in Paris, who is along with her Jacques Lerner, the famous animal impersonator, who is to appear with Miss Bellamy in "The Monkey Talk." A screen version of the international stage success of the same name written by Irene H. St. John, will be one of Miss Bellamy's first productions.

Charles Paddock, the world champion male sprinter, has already signed to play the role of a trainer.

It had been intended to make the campus scenes at Stanford University, but later Clarence Badger, the director, decided that the architecture of that center of culture was too individualistic and unified, and therefore the University of California buildings would appeal more universally, as well as offering a greater diversity of building plans.

Madge Bellamy Writes

Madge Bellamy, Fox Films star, who is touring France and other European centers, has just called from Paris that she has met Jacques Lerner, the famous animal impersonator, who is to appear with Miss Bellamy in "The Monkey Talk." A screen version of the international stage success of the same name written by Irene H. St. John, will be one of Miss Bellamy's first productions.

WARFIELD SAYS HE "MIGHT TRY FILMS"

David Warfield, admitted one of the greatest living actors, confided to Thomas Meighan at the Paramount (L. I.) studio the other day that "if something wonderful came along" he might try his skill in motion pictures, according to reports.

Warfield said he has always shied from the screen because it frightened him to see himself. "I'd rather play on the stage where I can't see myself," he said.

After that he will make a comedy of his own.

Kathleen Clifford is to play in Larry's first comedy in which he himself stars. She will also appear in the vaudeville act costarred with him.

Part of the comedian and Miss Clifford is for an extended stay in Europe.

Dorothy Dwan, who is Mrs. Semen in "Private Life" and Mac Ilitch, who is reported to be secretly married to Miss Semen.

Miss Clifford is well known for the musical comedy and vaudeville acts she has in London and Paris in this country. She is especially famous as an impersonator of smart male types.

Lerner's knowledge of the animal kingdom is said to be positively uncanny. In the picture, he will play the role of a talking monkey in the same that he played on the stage.

One of the most enjoyable features of Miss Bellamy's visit was an extensive visit to the battlefields of France. She has visited all the well-known centers of her stay. They visited Verdun, Chateau Thierry, and many important points in the vicinity of Rheims.

Mr. Lerner, before bidding farewell to Miss Bellamy, engaged her to the Folies Bergere, and introduced her to many of the leading theatrical favorites of France. He will sail for America soon after Miss Bellamy leaves.

J. STUART BLACKTON'S NEXT

It now turns out that the story called "The American," which J. Stuart Blackton is to produce in the film, is from the magazine tale, "The American," by James Francis Dwyer which had Theodore Roosevelt as its inspiration and original.

A preview of Blackton's latest picture, "The Passionate Guest," will be held at the Writers' Club next Thursday night. The cast includes May McAvoy, Gardner James, Willard Louis, Louise Fazenda, Holmes Herbert, DeWitt Jennings, Jane Winton, Vera Lewis, Frank Butler, Charles Stevenson and others.

JUNE MARLOWE IN IT

June Marlowe has been chosen to play the lead in Universal's series of college pictures known as "The College Girls." June Marlowe was chosen after nearly 2,000 screen tests had been made.

The pictures, which are a series of ten two-reelers, were written by Carl Laemmle Jr., and Billie George Lewis. Hayde Stevens has the part of the coach. Production starts about the 15th inst., with Harry Edwards directing. Bob Wagner is furnishing the script.

Universal plans to make the series of college stories the most popular since "The Leather Pushers" first pushed into the limelight.

HARRY CAREY'S NIGHT

Harry Carey delivered himself of a good line over the postprandial cigar last night: "Gentlemen prefer blondes," said Harry, "but blondes are not so particular."

LARRY SEMON'S PLANS

Larry Semen is to go abroad in September and appear in vaudeville with Kathleen Clifford.

In the meantime, however, he has been signed by Mack Sennett to direct Alice Day in two comedies.

ALICE RUBEN'S KIND HEART

Alma Rubens, when she returned from New York, was accompanied by the father and mother of her husband, Ricardo Cortes.

It was learned that Miss Rubens found her husband's family in none too good health, and therefore it was at her instance that they were invited to live in California, near the home of herself and Cortes.

EDDIE CANTOR'S SON

Eddie Cantor, his wife and four children will arrive tomorrow. They have secured rooms at the Beverly Hills Hotel. Their accommodations include several apartments.

The comedian is shortly to start work on "Kid Boots," in which Clara Bow will play opposite him, with Billie Dove also in an important supporting feminine rôle.

MAJEL COLEMAN'S MAJEL

In renewing his option on the services of Majel Coleman, stock player, Cecil De Mille announces that this young lady has made much progress in her career, appearing in bits and small parts during the last year that she will be elevated to a feature rôle under her new contract.

Incidentally, Mr. De Mille wants to make plain to all dramatic writers and type-setters that Miss Cole- man's given name is really spelled with a "l."

MAJEL COLEMAN

Don't believe that just because your mornings are hurried you must deny the family hot, nourishing breakfasts. Quick Quaker is faster than plain toast.

That means the most delicious hot breakfasts without mess or hurry.

It means the excellently "balanced ration" of protein, carbohydrates and vitamins—plus the "bulk" that makes laxatives less often needed—every day for you and yours.

Do as thousands are doing. Start every day with Quick Quaker.

Your grocer has Quick Quaker—also Quaker Oats as you have always known them.

Exclusive Photos Illustrate Capt. Amundsen's Story of Flight

THE complete story of the historic flight of the dirigible Norge from Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, across the exact northern axis of the world to Teller, Alaska, in the words of Capt. Roald Amundsen, the world's most noted explorer and commander of the expedition, is being printed in The Times, an exclusive feature in Southern California. The photos printed below, most of which were taken while the Norge was in flight across the top of the world, are exclusive as well as illustrative of Capt. Amundsen's story. When the Norge reached the North Pole, a wireless announcing the accomplishment to the world was dispatched, after which the dirigible was out of communication for hours. For a time it was feared that the expedition had met with mishap in the icy wastes of the uncharted polar regions, and it was not until the Norge appeared unexpectedly at Teller, Alaska, that apprehension on this score was allayed. Photos on this page are copyrighted by the New York Times and St. Louis Globe Democrat and supplied through Wide World Photos.

The case was submitted for judgment later.

TRAFFIC AT SIGNALS TO BE WATCHED

Chief Heath Announces Ordinances on Stops at Corners to be Enforced

Ordinances governing the movement of traffic at street intersections where automatic signals are in operation will be rigidly enforced by every officer of the police department, Deputy Chief Heath, head of the police traffic division, announced yesterday.

The announcement of the traffic chief followed the receipt of a communication from the police commission which stated that numerous complaints had been received of motorists disregarding these ordinances at such intersections.

"The automatic signals at intersections outside of the downtown area where traffic is unusually heavy have proved a great success in the rapid movement of traffic along the streets and saving time and damage to property," stated Chief Heath, "but a great many motorists have become careless in their driving of the signals."

Chief Heath pointed out that motorists must wait for the second bell before entering the intersection, and come to a stop at the first bell or be subjected to arrest.

RECEPTION TO BUYERS ARRANGED

Sixty firms join with Chamber to insure success of "Information"

New trade organizations, in addition to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, have volunteered to help in the reception and entertainment of the 2000 delegates to the National Purchasing Agents' convention, now en route to Los Angeles from every state in the nation. W. W. Morley, convention chairman, announced yesterday.

The other organization to give assistance to the convention is the California Institute of Steel Construction, which will send representatives to the station of the convention, to aid in the advertising program, and arrange for special receptions by visiting buyers interested in that industry.

One of the advance guard of buyers arrived in the city yesterday, are quartered at the Ambassador Hotel, where the convention will be held. President Christianeau, the local chairman of the buyers, informed yesterday that at least several hundred concerns are present to represent the delegations of varied descriptions.

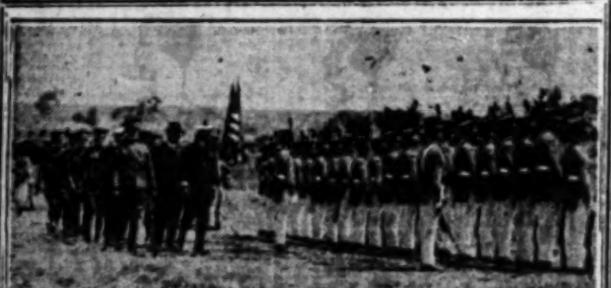

It is being rushed on the set-up of the "Information" exhibit of the Ambassador, nearly Los Angeles firms now being ready to display to their products.
